JUVENILE GRANGE MEETING

The Mattapoisett Juvenile Grange held its bi-monthly meeting Friday night with the worthy master, Barry Denham, presiding.

Under new business it was voted to have an open meeting June 28th. Pocasset Juvenile Grange members and guests will be present. Also, birthdays for April, May and June will be recognized. It was voted that Barry's father, John Denham, Jr., who is a past master of the Juvenile Grange, will receive his certificate of 25 years continued Grange service in the Subordinate Grange on the evening of June 20th. At the same time Mrs. Eunice Thompson, an aunt of George Randall, master of the Subordinate Grange, will receive her 50-year jewel.

The master appointed Alice Valley and Valerie Randall as ways and means chairmen to carry out a new project for the general treasury. They will start the project of selling 5¢ candy bars at each meeting. This committee had a successful start at this meeting.

At the lecturer's hour William Harris, agricultural chairman, had the program. It started with the members singing "Old MacDonald had a Farm". A vegetable spelling quiz was also held. The chairman passed out potatoes to the members 10 to 15 years to plant for the State project, and pumpkin seeds to the children 5 to 9 years to exhibit decorated pumpkins. The younger members colored vegetable pictures.

The worthy master explained to the members the story of these 7 men who with President Lincoln helped to plan a way for the farmers after the Civil War, taking the name Grange for this group.

THANK YOU, MISS FOX

The Mattapoisett Library is the busiest, year round source of pleasure and information in the town. Miss Dorothy Fox, who will resign July 1st, has richly earned the gratitude of all of the readers who enjoy the library. As librarian, she and her assistants have always made the library a friendly place where help is always generously and wholeheartedly given. The selection of books has always been varied to please readers of every age and taste. This alone is a tremendous job requiring many hours of reading and discriminating judgment. The fact that the library is always alive, that the books are always rotating is the best testimony that the choice has been excellent. A library doesn't have to be large to be good. The li-

We think that all of the readers of Mattapoisett will join us in appreciation of the many years that Miss Fox has devoted to our pleasure and our education through her work. And, in appreciation of the atmosphere of our library which has always been willing, generous with help and so pleasant. This is due to the gracious personality of the lady.
